Admission Policy

Aim:

To ensure that the college admits the students complying with statutory norms and guidelines.

Objectives:

- To ensure that admitted students meet the institution's academic standards and contribute positively to educational environment.
- To prioritize diversity and inclusivity irrespective of their racial, ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographic groups.
- To ensure fairness and transparency.

Practices:

- Reserved category students are admitted according to the guidelines set forth by statutory bodies.
- Preference is given in admission to economically disadvantaged, marginalized and sports students.
- Special consideration is given to physically challenged candidates during the admission process.
- The application form collects vital applicant details like education, nationality, religion, community status, parental occupation and income.
- The Principal, in consultation with the Secretary, appoints members to the Admission Committee, ensuring representation from senior faculty members and staff from reserved categories.
- An admission counseling office assists applicants, especially those from marginalized backgrounds, in selecting suitable courses based on their academic marks.
- The admission committee informs economically disadvantaged and marginalized students about management scholarships available at the time of admission, with recommendations made by the Principal.
